DOMESTIC MARKET

Soy meal

Soy meal prices remains stand still as that of previous day prices, as there was no fresh demand. Nothing new is expected till there would be any fresh news. International scenario remains still in favour of bears as the harvesting continue in full swing in South America. Traders are keenly watching the situation and waiting for any fresh news. It is expected that the prices may improve in near term on account of fresh demand from Far East countries. The prices at Indore spot market remain range bound at Rs 7800-8100/ton as per quality. Where Nanded and Latur is traded in between Rs. 7500-7600. Dhulia/Jalna and Datia witnessed Rs. 7900-8000 and 8200 respectively. In Nagpur the meal witnessed Rs. 7200/7500. Medium term international scenario is expected to remain bearish on account of full swing harvesting in South America. Exporters are waiting for any fresh demands from East but due to recent hike in fright charges of containers from $90.0-$100 to $250.0 results into very little trading in ports. Soymeal prices looking forward for any good response from abroad as well as any government intervention to ease the panic condition of soybean growers. Prices at port prevail at steady rate.
