URAD

FUNDAMENTALS

There was no fresh fundamental news. Stockists are still obstinate quoting higher for their produce. According to traders, more than 50% of crop in southern states has been sold out. Burmese, who have been finding other avenues for export, squarely cornered the amendments made at Indian commodity exchanges. Few consignments although are coming from Myanmar next week, locals are least bothered about imported cargos. Import from Myanmar is routine feature during this period of time. Stock of urad is not very big and next crop unlikely to be available before September. So, stockists seem in no haste and would like to see the mood of weather first.

Futures Market Commentary

Opening of urad June contract was weak, but toiled to come out from this bearish mode after both sided movements during initial hours. After 11.40 hrs, futures set off moving higher to never dip again in negative zone. Urad futures ended the day up 98 points at Rs 3215 per qtl.

Price Drivers

Bullish

Dwindling inventories in Southern States

Bearish

Due Consignments from Burma

Early onset of Monsoon

Weather

Monsoon has already hit the Andaman Island. Karnataka and Maharashtra might see timely arrival of monsoon.

CHANA

FUNDAMENTALS

There was no oomph in chana markets, as demand remained subdued in physical markets. Increased volatility is common near expiry of front month at commodity exchanges. People are in mood to wait till next week for true appraisal of the markets. Demand albeit is low in domestic markets, stockists are expecting good demand for the same from Pakistan, where production this year has fallen short to 3.5 lakh ton against more than 10 lakh ton last year. Pakistan conventionally imports from Australia, Canada, Ethiopia etc, Indians are optimistic about its demand from India to remain good due to competitive prices and proximity factor.

Futures Market Commentary

Chana futures opened in negative zone and held up there for long in the first. There was strong resistance at 2535, which futures breached once for a while before 12.45 hrs. Futures fairly infringed this level near 12.45 hrs and set out rising higher steadily for rest of the day. Chana June futures ended up 91 points at Rs 2626 per qtl.

Price Drivers

Bullish

Reports of export to Pakistan

Bearish

Subdued demand from consumers' end

Good stocks in key markets

Weather

Weather is not a factor until June for onset of monsoon. Chana itself is rabi crop, but good sowing of other pulses might cause negative impact on it.

TUR

FUNDAMENTALS

Tur markets featured firm trend. Hopes for likely issuance of government tenders for purchase of tur next month and losing interest of local millers in imported tur on quality concern kept the locals in upbeat mood. Prices already have come down substantially, which trades feel are overdone and see room for improvement in its prices in coming days. Dynamics next month, however, will depend upon progress of monsoon, which so far has been satisfactory.

Futures Market Commentary

Lemon tur futures opened firm, but kept moving either side of unchanged levels in a narrow range till noon. Futures started moving higher after 12.00 hrs to peak within next 70 minutes. High scale profit booking near high pulled futures steadily downward in the next couple of hours, but futures remained in the positive zone. June contract eventually ended the day up 32 points at Rs 1998 per qtl.

Price Drivers

Bullish

Likely issuance of tender for purchase by govt in June

Bearish

Due consignments from Burma

Good stocks of local produce

Weather

Weather is not a factor until June when new crop sowings will take place. All eyes will be on the monsoon then.

TECHNICALS

NCDEX -June Contract
