TURMERIC

SPOT MARKETS:

No trading activity took place in turmeric at both Nizamabad and Erode as markets remained closed on account of Mahashivratri holiday. However, arrivals from the fresh harvest are gaining momentum in the markets and consequently adding to the bearish market sentiments these days. Arrivals are expected to gain further pace in coming couple of weeks that would further pressurise the prices. Traders are expecting this year's crop size higher than year ago. Turmeric markets are likely to remain bearish on a better crop outlook for the season. Meanwhile, the TNAU's market intelligence cell has cautioned the growers to reduce the acreage during the forthcoming season as turmeric is hitting the trough of five-year price cycle this year.

FUTURES MARKETS:

Turmeric futures at NCDEX opened steady. The most active April contract opened at its near previous levels of Rs. 2008. Initially futures were traded upwards on increased buying interest, testing the highs of Rs. 2104. However increased selling pressure pulled the futures to trade downwards. Futures recovered marginally on buying support at lower levels during session end, however, closed in the negative territory of Rs. 2005. Futures traded in the range of Rs. 2014-1995.

PRICE DRIVERS:

Bearish:

1. Fresh crop arrivals gaining momentum in the markets
2. Weather suitable for growth of crop
3. Increased selling interest in the markets

Bullish:

1. Moderate demand at lower price levels
2. Moderate demand from Northern India

Weather:

Dry and warm weather remains favourable for harvesting of turmeric in A.P, Maharashtra and T.N

TECHNICALS

Turmeric is continuing its sideways movement. The prices closed below short term EMAs, which indicate weakness in the market. MACD is showing increase in bearish momentum, whereas Stochastic is negative in oversold region. The prices might continue to remain on the softer side.

BLACK PEPPER

SPOT MARKETS

Black pepper markets remained closed on Friday on account of Mahashivratri holiday. However, black pepper has witnessed firmness recently due to poor arrivals and offtake. Traders reported lacklustre demand in the market behind the recent decline in pepper prices. Spices Board has already notified that no more applications for availing freight subsidy from the exporters will be accepted as the upper limit has been reached. International buying was also not visible in the market as most of the importers are eyeing the Vietnam crop that would hit the market most likely during late March. Black pepper prices are likely to consolidate in short-term in domestic front.

FUTURES MARKETS

Black pepper futures at the NCDEX opened weak. The most active March contract opened slightly weak by Rs 15 at Rs 12785 against its previous close of Rs 12800. ## JEERA (Cumin)

SPOT MARKETS

Unjha market remained closed on account of Mahashivratri holiday. However, jeera spot markets continued to witness firm trend at Delhi market during Friday's trade. It was quoted on an average higher amidst higher offtake. Traders attributed improvement in demand situation and shortfall in production as the major supportive factor for the price rise. Crop arrivals from the fresh harvest are expected to pick up further during early March. Present weather conditions are also favourable for the harvesting and arrivals of jeera crop. Jeera exports have increased by 199 percent to 22000 tonnes and by 194 percent to Rs. 166 crore during Apr-December 2006. Domestic jeera prices are likely to remain firm in short-term.

FUTURES MARKETS

NCDEX Jeera futures opened steady. The most active March contract opened steady after yesterday's upper circuit at Rs. 10065. Initially futures were traded downwards on increasing selling pressure, testing the lows of Rs. 9926. However, increased buying interest at lower level pushed the prices thereafter to close the session in the positive territory at Rs. 10080. Futures hovered in the range of Rs. 10137-9926.

PRICE DRIVERS

Bullish:

1. Estimations of lower acreage under jeera
2. New crop size expected to be lower than year ago
3. Export has increased by 199 percent in quantity terms during Apr-Dec 2006

Bearish:

1. Fresh arrivals started increasing in the market
2. Weak buying support at the physical markets

Weather

Isolated rain/thundershower is likely over the jeera-producing region however not much concerning for the crop at this stage.

TECHNICALS

Jeera futures are continuing the upward rally. The prices closed well above EMAs, which shows firmness in the market. MACD is running upwards in positive zone, which indicates increasing bullish momentum. Dragonfly doji pattern of candlestick however shows indecision at higher levels. ## CARDAMOM

SPOT MARKETS

Export demand continued to pressurize the cardamom prices at auctions as they witnessed slightly recovery from yesterday. Exporters have already bought around 50 tonnes at various auctions on increasing exports enquiries and nearly 100 tonnes is likely to be exported by February end. The increased offloading at auctions coupled with reluctance of north Indian buyers to purchase cardamom at higher prices led to easing of prices and sluggishness in market during last week. Arrivals at Friday's auction at Mass Enterprises, Vandanmedu stood at 20 tonnes. The average prices stood at Rs 360 a kg against last week's Rs 350 a kg, while the 7mm MCX grade was traded in the range of Rs 385-395 a kg. According to trade sources, with festive season ahead and heavy overseas demand along with reduction in global output prices are likely to gain momentum in coming days.

FUTURES MARKETS

MCX Cardamom futures witnessed firm sentiments except for February contract, which missed the lower circuit. Increased selling pressure pulled the futures to expire Rs 24 down at Rs 415. Most active March contract opened slightly firm by Rs 1.60 at Rs 477. Increased buying interest pushed the futures to trade on the higher side and gained Rs 4.40 throughout the day. The futures hovered in the range of Rs 483-472.70 and finally settled in the positive territory of Rs 479.80.

PRICE DRIVERS

Bearish: 1. Guatemala's optimum carryover stock
2. Increased offloading at auctions

Bullish:
1. Near drought situation in Kerala
2. Declining stocks
3. Increasing overseas demand

WEATHER

Dry and warm weather conditions prevailing over Kerala and Tamil Nadu is not favourable for crop.

TECHNICALS

Candlesticks chart pattern reflects bearish sentiments. MACD is in positive region and moving downwards this indicates that trend will continue. Prices closed below both the 9 days EMA and 18 days EMA. Stochastic favours the bulls. The contract is most likely to trade downward following a steady to slightly weak opening.
