REFINED SOY OIL

SPOT MARKET:

Steady demand and bullish BMD CPO future led refined soy oil spot price to trade bullish across the domestic markets. BMD CPO future is continuing to rise and touched new record on Tuesday amidst expectation of exceeding demand over tight supplies. Last week's follow-through weakness in other grains coupled with forecast of good rainfall in eastern Corn Belt in later of week pressured soybeans. As per market observers, China is likely to demand for more US soybeans in current month on rising soy oil demand there. The crude soy oil CIF prices for June shipment dropped marginally on Tuesday at $841 per tonne against $842 per tonne on Monday. As per trade sources, Indonesia government are planning to hike the export taxes of palm oil in order to maintain adequate supplies there with spill over impact in Malaysia and domestically.

FUTURES MARKET:

Amidst fears of revision on import duty on edible oil witnessed strong bearishness on refined soy oil July contract at NCDEX. Despite bullish BMD, traders preferred profit taking. The July futures contract opened slight weak at Rs. 490.5 per 10 kg against previous closing prices of Rs 490.7 per 10 Kg. Contract closed up at Rs 497.35 per 10 Kg.

MCX refined soy oil July contract settled down on Monday on profit taking and fears of revision in import duty and oversupplies in coming days. The contract opened firmed at Rs. 491.4 per 10 kg against previous closing Rs 490.7 per 10 Kg and contract closed down at Rs 497.3 per 10 Kg.

PRICE DRIVERS:

- Bullish BMD CPO futures
- Firmness in other edible oil
- Tapering palm oil stocks in Malaysia
- Crude soy oil CIF prices dropped marginally
- Country is likely to import nearly 600,000 tonnes edible oil in June

Weather

Weather in a major concerns, since soybeans season come to end.

International Highlights

BMD CPO Futures Shoot Up on Concern of Tight Supply

Persistent concern of exceeding demand over limited palm oil stocks supported crude palm oil futures on Bursa Malaysian Derivatives on Tuesday and market touched new record. The most active August contract of CPO futures shoot up by MYR100 at MYR2,701 per tonne. Since the beginning of current year most active CPO contract has been risen by 35% so far including today's gains. Today market also gathered bullish momentum on Indonesian government's consideration of hike in export taxes.

Domestic Spot Market Highlights

Sky rocketing prices of crude palm oil both in Indonesia and Malaysia on fears of tight supplies have strong bullish reflection in domestic markets. Palm oil prices improved across domestic markets, however demand remains steady. The crude palm oil CIF prices for July shipment also improved significantly on Tuesday at $860 per tonne as compared to $832 per tonne on Saturday. The prospects of tight supply in major producing countries are expected to fuel palm oil prices there with spill over impact in domestic market.

Rape/Mustard oil

Spot prices of mustard oil are continuing to trade bullish amidst negligible arrivals of fresh stocks from producing regions amidst recent Gujar protest. Stockists were trying to grab this opportunity by hold back to their mustard oil stocks helped support to market. However, mustard oil demand remains steady. Traders are expecting, mustard oil prices are likely to improve further on delay restoration of supplies again.

Groundnut Oil

Subdued trade activities and steady demand lend groundnut oil prices to trade on softer side in domestic markets. Due to low production and limited nuts availability, farmers are benefited and they reap better prices. This in turn may support groundnut sowing sentiments in Uttar Pradesh and Madhya Pradesh in upcoming Kharif season. As arrivals pressure of new groundnut seeds is likely to extend till current month while demand remained weak, groundnut oil prices is likely to react steady to bearish ahead.

Refined Sunflower Oil

Spot prices of refined sunflower oil improved in major trading centers on steady demand and firmness in other vegetable oil. Sunflower seeds harvest is completed in Karnataka while arrivals remain steady. The sunflower oil CIF prices for July shipment on Tuesday increased on Tuesday at $897 per tonne as compared to $895 per tonne on Monday.

Refined Cottonseeds Oil

Bullish rival palm oil market domestically and in Malaysia helped support refined cottonseeds oil in domestic markets. Under prospects of good demand from overseas markets, better returns and easy availability of seeds for sowing may shoot up cotton production. The pre monsoon rainfall paved the way for start of cotton sowing in parts of Gujarat. As currently palm oil prices are moving close to cottonseeds oil that may influence its prices accordingly in near-term.
