

GUAR DAILY

13th, July 2007

SPOT MARKETS:

The spot prices of guar seed and guar gum were up in all the major markets as good physical demand offsets lower arrivals during the Thursday's trade. Normal demand from exporters and good demand from millers are reported in the market. However, all major markets have received lower arrivals as stockiest are hoarding stocks in anticipation of price rise. Guar seed stocks at NCDEX accredited warehouses stood at 26,110 tonnes as on July 11. Thus, taking into account the above factors, prices are likely to remain steady to slightly firm in coming days. Sowing of guar crops is in full swing in Haryana and Rajasthan. As per the trade sources, a normal rainfall in July will favour the guar cultivation. Above the normal rainfall as IMD forecast heavy rainfall in parts of Rajasthan may disrupt the sowing process. Water logging in guar fields may damage the guar crops as the crop is susceptible to water logging. This year's increased guar acreage may also lead the increase of guar production. Total arrivals at the major markets of Rajasthan stood at around 2500-3000 bags with no arrival reported in Nokha and Bikaner.
