

Sugar & Gur Domestic & International Fundamentals

- Sugar prices declined sharply owing to weak demand and increasing sugar supply from mills.
- MP millers are willing to pay Rs. 250 per quintal as a cane remuneration price to farmers as reported. However, farmers don't want to supply cane to millers and divert their cane towards kolhus in lieu of fast payment.
- India imported 2.76 lac tons of raw sugar from Brazil in November 2012 as reported.
- Thailand cane harvesting picking up pace and around 2 million tons of sugarcane has crushed by Thai millers till date. As far as sugar production is concerned, Thailand produce 1 lac tons of sugar till 30th November 2012.
- Brazil exported 2.917 million tons of sugar, raw value, in November up from 3.998 million tons in October and up from 2.483 million tons sugar exported last year same period. It is noticeable that Brazil is likely to increase export in the coming months keeping in view higher sugar production compared to last year. In addition to it, Brazil has exported only 18.56 million tons of sugar this year till October which was 19.66 million tons, raw value, last year same period.
- Government has removed unrestricted sugar exports under OGL scheme from October 2012-13 keeping in view lower sugar production this year. Government earlier allowed unrestricted sugar exports for almost five months last marketing year. Millers who are seeking to export sugar will have to get a release order from DGFT.
- India's sugar production reached at 2.33 million tons in the first two months starting from October 1st 2012 marginally down from 2.39 million tons sugar produced by mills last year same period. Delay in sugarcane crushing by UP millers owing to non declaration of cane price by UP government for 2012-13.
- Gur prices are steady today in Muzaffar nagar market despite of higher arrivals.

Outlook:

Sugar prices likely to continue its downward movement in the coming days keeping in view continuous sugar imports and higher sugar quota for the coming months.
