

Dated: 28th Jan. 2011

- Soy meal prices were down. FAS remained unchanged.
- > Strong demand of Soy meal from export houses influencing the Prices.

DOMESTIC SOYMEAL MARKET:

Soy meal traded with steady to weak bias on poor buying inquiries with weak trading activities. Soy meal prices at domestic markets were down by Rs. 100-200/ton compared to the previous day prices as a result of static buying activity by the traders at mandi.

- ✓ Soybean prices were moved down on lack of demand from local crushing plants amid high moisture content arrival. Soybean prices may remain steady to firm in short term on increased buying support from crushing plants amid tight supply from producing regions.
- ✓ Soybean crush margins for processors remained negative side compared to the previous day crush margin as a result of prevailing higher prices for soybean.
- CBOT soy meal gains were capped by sluggish domestic soymeal demand.
- ✓ As per the estimates expected from the U.S. Census Bureau's December crush report to be released, the December soybean crush at 152 million bushels, a modest decrease from the prior month, attributing the decline in processing to poor margins due to higher soybean prices.
- ✓ Firm trend in overseas market for soymeal is likely to render support to the Indian market.
- As per weekly U.S. export sales data released on Friday, Soybean Cake and Meal net sales of 232,200 MT were up noticeably from the previous week and from the prior 4-week average.
- ✓ Indian traders have signed contracts to export up to 600,000 metric tons of soymeal from the new season's crop for shipment in January.
- ✓ Total soymeal exports from India by the end of January are likely to touch 2 million tons.
- ✓ India's soybean-meal exports surged by 62 percent last month as Southeast Asian buyers substituted imports from South America, where dry weather threatens planting- Soybean Processors Association of India.
- ✓ India's oilmeal exports rose 94 percent to 765,954 tonnes in December from 395,663 tonnes a year earlier. Oilmeal exports in the first nine months of the current financial year from April 2010 rose to 3.2 million tonnes compared with 2.3 million tonnes a year ago-Solvent Extractors' Association of India.
- ✓ Soybean output in Argentina, the largest producer after the U.S. and Brazil, is forecast to fall 15 percent to 47 MMT this year because of water shortages in the main growing regions.
