

➤ Soy meal Prices Witnessed Steady to Firm. FAS Inert.

- ✓ Stale mate condition seems between the buyers and sellers for soy meal as meager trade happens on Saturday from Indore as the sellers stick towards INR 19000/ton while buyers were asking for INR 18750. This creates a condition with seller expectation for meal quotes to stay firm with buyers looking for a relatively lower quotes from India on the advent of active shipment of meal from Argentina.
- ✓ In a recent move on dated 11/04/11, Dibjyoti buys nearly 500 tons locally from Indore at the rate of INR 18650 to meet export obligation as it fails short of its export obligation contracted during last couple of weeks. Out of the 500 tons, 100 tons of soy meal are said to supply by Ambika Solvex. Soy meal to the tune of 500 tons is purchased on FOR basis to Gandhidham delivery.
- ✓ Moreover, spread between FAS Kandla and FOB Argentina (USD/ton) is tilted towards India with current spread hovering near USD 40/ton. Spread between the two is likely to cool off during coming couple of weeks with active shipment from the Argentinean ports.
Meanwhile, domestic demand for meal is likely to stay almost stable which might lend support to the meal demand. Moving forward, any export enquiry at prevailing prices shall lend underlying support to the meal prices for short term.
