

Oilseeds Domestic Fundamentals:

Oilseeds prices extended gains on buying support in cash markets. Spurt in some demand in the vegetable oils followed by auspicious period for marriages subsequently lend support to the local oilseeds prices.

Oilseeds International Fundamental:

Slow pace in soybean planting in US, higher G-3 soya oil exports ((increasing to about 730 Thd T in May (against 612 Thd T last year) and 5.87 Mn T in Sept/May 2010/11)) and larger than expected damage of EU-27 rapeseed crop due to frost remained bullish factors for the international oilseeds market.

Outlook:

The domestic oilseeds prices are likely to remain firm on buying support in the seed in physical market coupled with by waning supplies in rapeseed and fresh demand in the edible oils.
