

Pulses Domestic Fundamentals:

- Mostly a weak tone featured in pulses cash markets on Saturday except Peas and Chana, prices of which are mostly steady to firm.
- Comfortable supply of tur weighing on prices, while summer moong crop arrivals keeping prices in check.
- Peas prices traded firm on tight supply of desi peas in markets coupled with higher parity of imported peas, which also seen supporting the chana sentiment.
- Meanwhile, anticipation of higher area coverage under Kharif pulses (Tur, Urad & Moong) on announcement of higher MSP and additional incentive further keeping prices in check.
- However, pulses crop may face stiff competition with other crop like Cotton, sugarcane which performed well throughout the season in southern states of the country.
- Progress of monsoon will remain the key in coming days for deciding the pulses area.

Pulses International Fundamental:

- According to USDA's latest report, area under lentils and peas during 2011-12 is forecast at 2.87 and 2.37 lakh hectares respectively compared to last year's 2.66 and 3.06 lakh hectares.

Outlook: Prices for Tur, Urad and Moong are likely to remain range bound with weak bias in coming day, while prices for chana and peas may remain steady to slightly firm.
