

Domestic Fundamentals:

Steady to weak tone witnessed in domestic edible oil market on Wednesday as a result of sluggish trading activities. Availability of increased stocks of imported edible oils stock (1.15 MMT as on 27th July, 2011) may keep the prices in range bound level. Marginal fall of Rs. 2-5 per 10Kg found in edible oils mainly ref. soy oil and palm oil. Meanwhile, groundnut prices remained flat at previous price levels Rs. 890-1000 per 10kg and in some regions fall by Rs. 10-20 per kg on lack of buying support. Prevailing higher price of groundnut oil, may limit further gain from the point onwards.

Considerable widening of spread differential between Argentina CSO and Malaysian CPO is likely to continue to favor the CPO imports backed by higher demand prior to Ramadan and nearing line of festivities.

International Market Fundamentals:

Malaysian palm oil futures remained slightly firm on Wednesday and up by 14 points MYR 3133 per tonnes as resume of buying by China which added marginal support but higher stocks amid concern of weak China economy data continued to weigh on prices.

Market participants are closely watching the Chinese factor as China plans to buy more soy oil from Argentina. With any major shift in Chinese demand towards Argentina might weigh on the soy oil prices at US. Better demand expectation from Middle East and other Asian nations will keep soy oil prices in a tight range at CBOT in medium term.

US soy oil futures remained firm on Tuesday's trading session as the threat of poor crop conditions ahead of soybeans critical pod filling stage of development encouraged traders to add risk premium back to prices. But the market participants feel weather won't have its biggest impact on the soy crop until August wherein range bound movement can be seen for short term.

Outlook:

Considering the international spread advantage between soy oil and palm, we expect palm oil import to surge in near term. Other edible oil consumption is likely to stay at higher levels which might keep edible oil prices on encouraging note going ahead with the festival demand.
