

Oilseeds Domestic Fundamentals:

Oilseeds prices extended gains on buying support from solvent extractors followed by spurt in seasonal demand in the edible oils and oilmeals. Oilmeal prices in domestic market extended gains on buying support followed by seasonal demand from poultry industry. Small soy meal shipments to major buyers from Far East and South East are on lending support to the Indian soy meal prices. Reports of lower US soybean production this season and higher Malaysian palm oil remained supportive factors for the Indian soy meal prices.

International Oilseeds Fundamental:

As per Oil World, the world ending stocks of the 2010/11 season will be higher than expected at a record 75.8 million tonnes (on Aug. 31), approximately 10.0 million tonnes above a year ago. Of the total Aug. 31 soybean stocks, about 6.63 million tonnes are forecast by Oil World to be in the United States, up from 4.11 million tonnes in Aug. 2010.

About 26.03 million tonnes of the stocks are expected to be in Brazil, up from 18.66 million tonnes last year and 25.58 million tonnes in Argentina, up from 25.05 million tonnes last August.

Outlook:

The domestic oilseeds prices are likely to gain owing to renewed seasonal demand in the vegetable oils which will subsequently encourage the solvent extractors in crushing the seed.
