

Wheat Domestic Fundamentals:

- Cash wheat market continued to move up on export deals. Malaysia brought 50,000 tonnes of wheat from India at the rate of $335-340 per tonne. Some deals to B'desh also confirmed for far months at higher prices.
- Rack loading for Kandla from U.P. and Rajasthan has been reported at Rs 11600 per Tonne. MNC's are actively buying wheat from U.P., Rajasthan, Bihar and M.P. as wheat is abundantly available in these states.

Wheat International Fundamental:

- U.S. wheat futures slid to a one-month low, falling for a fifth straight session.
- Broad weakness in global markets triggered by concerns over Europe's ability to tackle its worsening sovereign debt crisis weighs on market.
- A strong report may see prices rebound, particularly given that drought conditions continue across the U.S. Great Plains.
- Russian wheat is currently offered around $290/ton, FOB, while Australian Standard White is quoted at $310/ton.

Outlook: Domestic:

- Wheat prices are likely to remain firm on export deals to B'desh and Malaysia.
