

Oilseeds Domestic Fundamentals:

Soybean prices featured mild gains on supportive buying and lower supplies on Tuesday. However, weak international oil and fats market limited the gains. The soybean arrivals in Madhya Pradesh slightly improved and reported at 3.50 lakh bags compared to 3.25 lakh bags previous day. Again the ADM, Agri Link, Adani, Cargill, Ruchi and NBHC remained the major buyers. The big market players have soy meal export obligations and are even seen to purchasing the bean and meal at slightly higher quotes. The soybean arrivals in Maharashtra and Rajasthan remained almost flat with 2.0 and 1.0 lakh bags respectively. Buying in all the key cash markets in these states remained good.

International Oilseeds Fundamental:

The world soybean outturn is estimated at 261.5 Mn T in 2011/12, down 4.3 Mn from a year earlier by Oil World. This is due to lower production estimates from Northern Hemisphere. The situation will eventually keep the international soybean prices strong during the season and subsequent spillover impact could be seen on Indian soy prices.

Outlook:

We expect soybean and RM seed prices to remain strong in near-term on expected rise in seasonal demand in edible oils and lower supplies in the oilseeds. The bean prices have potential to gain further in near-term. It is advised to continue buying at the current levels Rs2210-2250/qtl.
