Oilseed Daily Fundamental Report

Dec 17, 2011

Oilseeds Domestic Fundamentals:

Oilseeds prices eased on lackluster buying activity in cash markets of Madhya Pradesh. However, firm international vegoil market limited the decline. No major activity featured in the soybean cash market on Friday. The soybean arrivals in Madhya Pradesh remained flat at 1.5 lakh bags consecutive third day. Feeble buying activity was featured in the market. Fall in dollar against rupee was the major talk of the day on Friday (PI refer last page for Rajasthan trade detail).

International Oilseeds Fundamental:

The aggregate soybean crushings and net bean exports from Argentina, Brazil and the USA has increased by 0.5 Mn T from previous year to 18.2 Mn T in November. Oil World has pegged Brazil's 2011/12 soybean production at 72.8 Mn T, lower against last year's production estimate of 75.32 Mn T. However, Celeres has estimated the production at 74.9 Mn T for the season. Conab has projected the crop at 71.29 Mn T.

Outlook: The soybean prices have marginally dipped on Friday. However, we feel range bound to firm movement in the soybean prices are likely in near-term. The prices are expected to move towards 2400 levels (Plant delivery, Indore). It is advised to buy, if need, at the current levels of 2325-2365, considering the dip as an opportunity.
