

Potato Fundamentals:

- Prices have increased in recent past due to lower supply from producing region mainly Uttar Pradesh due to Assembly Elections.
- Today prices have hit upper circuit of 4 % in Futures Market on Multi Commodity Exchange of Agra delivery. The prices have increased due to speculative position in anticipation of festival demand and reduced supply.
- At the same time, prices are down by 2 to 3% in Tarkeshwar due to peak arrival season.
- As per market information, there is 40-50 % loss in late sown variety of Potato in UP due to cold weather.
- Traders are putting their produce directly in cold storage in anticipation of higher price in near future.
  However, arrival is expected to increase after Holi. Farmers, who have kept their produce with them, will bring their stock once the temperature start rising.
- At the same time, the retail prices are hovering between Rs. 700 to Rs 1800/Qtl. The highest retail price Rs. 1800/Qtl was recorded in Trivandrum (Kerala) followed by Chennai Rs. 1600/Qtl.
