

Potato Fundamentals

- From Khandauli, Agra (U.P), 80% of potato is going to south India and rest 20% is going to other parts of U.P and Delhi. Prices are hovering between Rs 1050-1150 /quintal.
- In Agra till now 20% potato has been released from the cold storages. This year the cold storages were only filled by 80-85% as compared to last year. Major demand comes from Bihar, Andhra Pradesh and Assam. Prices are further expected to increase because of low production, which was 30% less compared to last year.
- In Tarkeshwar (West Bengal) last year 16% potato were released whereas this year 20% potato are released till now, the reason being 20% less production than last year. As per the trader release from cold storage is increasing gradually because of higher prices.
- In Indore local cold storage potato is coming into the market. The major demand comes from South India. Companies like Pepsico, ITC are also the major buyers because 'Chip sona' and 'Laukar' variety are produced there.
