

NCDEX remains closed on 1st May,2012 on "Labour Day"

Pulses Domestic Fundamentals:

- Steady price movement and limited trading activity witnessed in most of the domestic markets. Meanwhile several domestic markets and all future markets are closed due to "Labour Day".
- Farm sources revealed that farmers may shift planted area towards moong from bajra in U.P due to relative higher returns.
- Continuous depreciation of INR value (INR=52.64 USD) is likely to make imports unviable at the moment.
- In last week, 164 containers of Burmese urad, 24 containers of Tur, 12 containers of moong, 4 containers of peas and 2 containers of chana arrived at Chennai port.

International Fundamentals:

- In U.S., pulses crop progress is in full pace. In North Dakota (U.S.), dry edible beans are 44 percent planted on 29 April, 2012 compared to 27 percent in last week and zero percent last year. In Minnesota, 60 percent of green peas are planted on 29 April, 2012 compared to 44 percent in previous week.
- While in Washington, 75 percent of green peas and 22 percent of dry peas are planted till 29 April, 2012 compared to 50 percent of green peas and 20 percent of dry peas in last week.

Outlook: demand-supply match is likely to result in further improvement in prices.
