

There will be no reports and updates on 28 Nov 2012 as Agriwatch will be closed for the occasion of Guru Nanak Jayanti.

Pulses Domestic Fundamentals:

- Steady sentiment witnessed in domestic cash markets on Tuesday.
- The market is pressured by low quality new crop in domestic markets. Besides, continuous arrivals of imported pulses also leads to continuous availability in market.
- New tur crop arrival reported in some mandi. However, full pace arrivals are likely to be reported in December month.
- Rabi sowing is lagging behind due to delay in planting. Favorable weather in Domestic, followed by the Large import of Australian chana, has eased concerns about tight global chana supplies restricting gains in chana.
- At JNPT port, 50 containers of Burma tur, 70 containers of Malawi tur, 199 containers of Tanzania tur, 8 containers of Mozambique tur, 30 containers of Burma urad, 50 containers of Tanzania chana, 10 containers of Australia chana, 137 containers of Canada masoor, 5 containers of Australia moong, 36 containers of Burma moong, 11 containers of Australia moong, 18 containers of Indonesia moong, 37 containers of moong, 11 containers of Canada green peas, 21 containers of USA green peas and 14 containers of USA chana arrived during Nov.23,2012.

International Fundamental:

- International lentil markets witnessed easier tone during the last week.
- Yellow peas market in Canada Europe and the United States remained unchanged on massive Australian desi chickpea harvest.
- In previous week, Canadian green pea markets reached to new record high levels in both inter-dealer and grower markets. Lower total green pea production in the three key exporting countries Canada, the United states and Argentina and lower ending stocks has resulted in a situation where the available supply of human consumption quality product is down for the third year in a row.

Outlook: - Weak to range-bound are likely to witness due to dull buying interest.
