Chana

Technical Commentary:

- ✓ Candlestick formation in chart hints towards indecision in market.
- ✓ During yesterday's session, fall in price with increase in OI and volume depicts that market may enter into a consolidation phase.
- ✓ Oscillator, RSI is moving in the over-bought region (at 83 mark), which cautions bulls.
- ✓ However, prices closed well-above its short term EMA (9,18) levels which suggests firmness in prices. MACD also moves upward in positive zone which doesn't hints towards long term weakness.
- ✓ NCDEX chana future prices would remain in between 4300-4450 levels during today's trading session.
- ✓ We advised market participants to book profit and exit long positions.
