

Daily Sugar & Gur Fundamental Report

25th June, 2012

Sugar & Gur Domestic & International Fundamentals:

- Mixed sentiments recorded in various sugar spot markets on Saturday as markets could not find adequate cues to decide the prices either side.
- Indian mills exported 3 lac tons of sugar till 15th June after the government lifted quantitative restrictions in early May,
- China imported 256,940 tons of sugar in May 2012 up by 47% Y-o-Y. However, Chinese May sugar imports declined from 313,084 tons a month earlier. May sugar imports take the total sugar imports to 2.33 million tons in the first eight months which is up from 823,090 tons sugar imported by China last year till same period.
- Sugar prices should take an downward correction from here on considering weakness in global sugar prices. Also, market is keeping an eye over next quarter sugar quota allocation which will decide the direction of sugar prices further.
- Sugarcane has been planted in 51.52 lac.hectares so far. Sugarcane has been planted in 1.38 lac.hectares. more than that in 2011-12, according to Pib.
- Prices of Chaku gur remained steady in Muzaffar nagar market today. Medium term outlook seems bullish in gur due to increasing offtake and expected demand of gur would come from Gujarat and Rajasthan after Monsoon.
- Last week around 48000 bags of gur sold out from Cold storages which indicate good demand of gur which have led the prices up during last week in Muzaffar nagar spot mandi.
- Around 1316000 bags (40 kg each) has been stored in Muzaffar nagar cold storage till 19th June 2012 which are 27000 bags higher compared to last year same period stock position of gur. Out of total gur stock position, there are around 151000 bags of Rascut variety and 160000 bags of Papdi variety gur stored in Cold storages.

Outlook:

Sugar prices surged recently owing to bulk demand and surge in international sugar prices. However, prices should take a correction considering weak sentiments in international markets. However, gur prices are likely to move up due to good domestic demand.
