

Daily Sugar & Gur Fundamental Report

19th July, 2012

Sugar & Gur Domestic & International Fundamentals:

- Sugar prices declined today in key spot markets on Wednesday owing to profit booking by traders at higher levels. In addition to it, higher sugarcane production estimate by government in its fourth advance estimate weigh on the sugar prices.
- Chinese demand, which has been strong, is likely to weaken in the coming days due to higher sugar imports by China. It is notable that China imported 2.33 million tons of sugar in first eight months up from 0.82 million tons in same period previous year.
- Scanty rainfall hit sugarcane crop in Maharashtra resulted in lower sugarcane production by 15% from last year. Crop available for crushing will drop to 65mt compared to 77.1mt last year. Average recovery of sucrose is expected to decline to 11.50% in 2012-13 compared to 11.65% last year. If situation gets worse than it would be difficult for some millers to go for crushing in the coming season.
- Government of India has increased sugarcane production estimate for 2011-12 to 357.67 million tons in its fourth advance estimate up from 351.1 million tons estimated by government in its third advance estimate. Increase in sugarcane estimate by government might offset the impact of recent bullishness in the sugar prices.
- Gur prices are moving range bound today in Muzaffar nagar spot mandi.
- Around 1120000 bags (40 kg each) has been stored in Muzaffar nagar cold storage till 16th July 2012 which are 57000 bags higher compared to last year same period stock position of gur. Out of total gur stock position, there are around 778000 bags of Chaku variety and 128000 bags of Papdi variety gur stored in Cold storages.
- Last week around 28000 bags of gur sold out from Cold storages which were lesser than previous year owing to kavad yatra which restricts the demand of gur.

Outlook:

Sugar prices are likely to correct from higher levels but long term sentiments are still bullish as expected. However, prices in gur moved upwards in Muzaffar nagar mandi owing to gur holding by traders in anticipation of higher prices supported by increasing off take of gur from cold storages
