

Domestic Fundamentals:

- Edible oils witnessed steady to slightly firm tone in major cash markets on fair buying interest.
- Palm oil slightly surge on Wednesday on due to depreciating INR against USD which would make imports costlier. However, demand from wholesalers was need based. Coconut oil stood stable after a sharp decline in the prices during the last week.
- Groundnut oil stood steady at its benchmark market Rajkot on limited buying. However, prices may soften in the coming days on higher groundnut seed arrivals.
- Edible oil basket may trade steady to slightly firm tone in the coming days on supporting international factors and depreciating INR against USD for short term. However, overall demand for edible oil in spot market is weak which may limit upside.

International Market Fundamentals:

- CPO at BMD futures market was ended lower on Wednesday's trading session on Euro zone debt crisis and weaker Euro against USD. However, better buying may be witnessed from the major importers ahead of Ramadan festival in July which may support the bulls for short term.
- Hot weather concern over US and good demand for Malaysian palm oil from Asian and Middle East countries due to Ramadan festival in July may support the markets. However, Euro Zone jitters could limits upside.

Outlook:

We expect edible oil prices to slightly gain on bullish international factors and depreciating INR against USD. However, non-aggressive buying may limit upside.
