

Latest Market Development:-

Rice inflation has reached 21.15% in July year on year basis from 19.11% in June. WPI has increased 216.30 to 226.30 in July due to rise in price in open market. Rice prices have increased by 4.62% in July over previous month.

Indian Rice (Kharif season) planting area has reached 30.46 million hectares so far as compared to 29.25 million hectares at the same time last year, which is around 4.13% more than previous year. Rice area can rise further as area under rice is expected to increase in North East India once monsoon improves in August as per reports from IMD.

Buoyant monsoon has brought rice prices down in Karnataka state by 10-25% over previous month. Price of Sona Masuri has dropped from Rs 54/kg to Rs 41-46/kg and that of Sona Steam from Rs 37-42/ kg to Rs 32-37/kg. Lower demand from Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra too has weighed on prices.

Basmati production (especially 1121) in Punjab is likely to go up by 20 percent this year. Production of new variety 1509 issued by PAU this year (Punjab Agriculture University), considered to be superior one to 1121, and may contribute two to three percent in total basmati production in Punjab.

Production of desi basmati (usually known as Pakistani basmati in India) and Sharbati is likely to dip considerably as farmers have opted to go for 1121, 1509, PR-13 and PR-14 in place of above quoted two varieties.

Government of India has removed the 15% Custom duty on import of rice bran effective from 1st October 2013. This is likely to boost import from neighboring countries like Pakistan, Nepal, Bangladesh and Myanmar. As per estimates rice bran imports could reach to 50,000-100,000 tonnes in a year due to high domestic demand for rice bran oil.

India's rice exports have surged in the last three months due to the depreciation of the Indian rupee compared to the USD. According to the USDA Post in New Delhi, India's rice exports in January – July 2013 have reached around 6 million tons, with rice exports surging almost 25% in June to around 1 million tons, up from around 800,000 tons seen in May 2013.

According to SEA rice bran oil production in India has grown about 32% in the last eight years, from around 680,000 tons in 2004-05 to an estimated 900,000 tons in 2012-13. According SEA data, the current rice bran oil production in India is around 62% of the total potential and around 80% of total production capacity.

Indian Rice (Kharif season) planting area has reached 23.88 million hectares so far as compared to 23.14 million hectares at the same time last year, which is around 3% more than previous year. Rice area can rise further as area under rice is expected to increase in North East India once monsoon improves in August as per reports from IMD.

Total rice exports by India in the current Marketing Year (MY) October, 2012 to July, 2013, crossed 88 lakh tonnes, we expect total rice export in the end of this MY (Oct-2013) is likely to touch 10 million tonnes. This is supported by strong demand from West Asia, Africa and South-East Asian countries.

Basmati rice export from October 2012 to July 2013 reached 31.90 lakh tonnes which is 7.29% higher than previous year basmati export of 29.73 lakh tons last year same period.

Rice Balance Sheet:-

With good start of monsoon and above normal rainfall Agriwatch expects higher rice production in 2013-14 at 105 million T. Higher export volume this year is expected to drag down carryout from 21.53 to 17.53 million T in 2013-14. With higher initial production estimate total availability would increase from 121.53 million T to 123.53 million T. Consumption would increase slightly by one million T.

Rice procurement by Government agencies has now going very slow due to lean season and procurement target of 400 lakh tonnes in this season (September-2013) is unlikely to achieve as stock of rice is not as much available in the markets, however procurement is likely to touch around 350 lakh tonnes same as last year in this season.

World Market Recap:

South Korea has purchased 32,000 tons of rice in international tenders, according to the state run Korea Agro Fisheries. Of the total purchases, 27,565 tons of rice was purchased for USD 928/MT, while the remaining 4,435 tons of rice was purchased for USD 918/MT.

Thai Rice Exporters Association has (TREA) has estimated Thailand rice export in 2013-14 at 6.5 million tonnes which is lower than their previous estimate of 6.9 million tonnes. USDA has estimated Thailand rice export at 7 million tonnes and Thai government has estimated its export at 8-8.5 million tonnes.

China's rice imports are expected to surge to a record 4 million tons in 2013-14, up about 500,000 tons or about 14% from around 3.5 million tons of rice imports in the previous year, according to the China National Grain and Oils Information Center (CNGOIC). As per the forecast, China's imports will account for around 11% of total annual global rice trade this year. CNGOIC lowered its 2013-14 rice production estimates by one million tons due to ongoing drought in key rice producing areas.

China's rice export this year may fall due to high temperature and lower rain. Rice output may fall in lower Yangtze River and southwest china region. In Hunan, Hubei, Jiangxi and Anhui provinces in the center of China, contribute to about 40 percent of the country's total production and high temperatures are expected to continue in the coming days.

Vietnam has exported about 4.061 million tons of rice during January - July, 2013, down about 3% from around 4.17 million tons of rice exported in the same period last year, according to data from the Vietnam Food Association (VFA). Average export prices of about USD 429/MT (FOB) in January – July 2013 are about 7% lower than average export prices of around USD 463/MT during the same period last year.

Thailand has exported 2.9 million tonnes of rice in first 6 months of this year, which is 8.4% lower for the same period last year. Fall in export is witnessed due to stiff competition from India and Vietnam. Thailand is expected to export 6.5 million tonnes of rice this year.

Myanmar's total rice exports may reach around 1.4 million tons in 2013, helped by cross border trade with China and Thailand, and the recent decision by the EU to allow duty-free rice imports from Myanmar.

U.S. Customs officials have returned a rice shipment from Pakistan after they found Khapra beetles in it. Officials of the Customs and Border Protection (CBP) told local sources that the USDA has confirmed the presence of Khapra beetles in the consignment carrying 1,027 bags of rice. CBP also said that the consignment carried a phyto-sanitary certificate from Pakistan claiming that the rice was free from Khapra beetle.

IGC Rice Balance sheet Highlights:-

- The IGC GOI rice sub-Index is down 2% m/m to a near three year low, led by declines in prices in Thailand.
- World ending stocks are set to show little y/y change in 2012/13, but inventories in the major exporters are expected to rise by 10%, mainly on accumulation in Thailand.
- In 2013/14, larger crops in Asia's leading producers will underpin a 2% increase in the global outturn and world carryovers are likely to rise for the ninth consecutive year.
- Global trade is projected to increase only slightly in calendar 2014, with prospects for an expansion in deliveries to Far East Asia appearing limited
