

Pulses Domestic Fundamentals:
Today's Update:

- Masur prices traded in a range amidst lower buying interest by stockists and millers due to easy availability of stocks at cheaper prices. It traded at INR 6100 per quintal in Kolkata, up by INR 25 while Desi Masur traded at previous level of INR 6400 in Kanpur. Record production in Canada and Australia besides expected good production in Rabi season is keeping the prices in check. Spike in the market is unlikely as the inflow continues, supported by good area coverage and crop conditions.

Previous Update:

- Imported Masur prices remained down at INR 6075 per quintal, down by 100 while it traded at INR 6050 per quintal and INR 5950 per quintal in Mumbai and Chennai also respectively due to lower demand amidst plenty of stocks with various agencies. Recent decision on India-Australia Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (Ind-Aus ECTA) would also keep pressure on prices as 1.50 lakh tonnes Lentil can be imported on only 50% of the applied rate of duty. Spike in the market is unlikely as the inflow continues, supported by good area coverage and crop conditions.
- As per the market sources, Govt. pulses stock is expected to be around 33 lakh tonnes in the beginning of 2023. Out of total stock, percentage share of Chana is around 72-75% and rest are other including Tur, Urad, Moong and Masur.

International Market Update:

- According to December report by Australian Bureau of Agricultural and Resource Economics and Sciences (ABARES), Lentils production for 2022-23 is estimated at 10.53 LMT as compared to 9.99 LMT for 2021-22, up by 5.36%. This year acreage increased by 12.32% from 5.75 lakh ha to 6.46 lakh ha.
- According to the Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada's (AAFC) November Outlook for the 2022-2023 crop year, Lentil production in Canada is estimated to increase by 43% to 2.3 million tonnes due to higher yields in Western Canada, however, previous month's estimate was of 2.8 million tonnes. Among all the types, Red lentil output is likely to increase to 1.77 million tonnes and Green Lentil to 0.3 million tonnes compared to last year. Export is expected to remain at 2.3 million tonnes. India and Turkey are the major buyers of Canadian Lentil.
