

Soy Meal Fundamentals: Soymeal prices declined today after lower demand in domestic market. However, overseas and poultry demand may curb any major fall.

As per sources, India has shipped higher soymeal in January 2021. The soymeal exports are recorded significantly higher by 484% year on year to 336,390 tonnes against last season after robust demand from overseas markets (European and Asian buyers). France, Germany, Indonesia and Bangladesh were the major buyers. India exported total 950,134 tonnes in the first four month of 2021/21 marketing year. The exports is likely to rise more than 2 million tonnes in 2020/21 against 825,000 tonnes in last season.

As per Refinitiv commodity research, the export of soymeal in Argentina went up by 38% in January 2021 against the previous year's record. The shipment of soy oil also increased and touched the level of 477 thousand tons, the highest January export since 2017. However, the export may fall in the coming month once the harvesting will start in Brazil and buyers may switch to the Brazilian soybean crop.

The Argentine soymeal prices have got dearer in last couple of months due to lean season, this has narrowed down the price spread of India vs Argentina, opening some exports window for India.

- In spite of tough competition in world market, export of rapeseed meal and ricebran extraction performed well, during the last eight months of financial year 2020-21.
- India's exports for rapeseed meal during April-December 2020 was up +24% at 9,16,715 metric tonnes compared to 7,41,199 metric tonnes during the same period previous marketing season.
