

Potato Fundamentals:

- In West Bengal approximately 94% of potatoes have been released so far. Traders are expecting that remaining potatoes may last till mid January.
- In West Bengal so far 50% sowing is completed as per trade sources. Sowing is delayed this year due to unfavorable weather conditions as its raining continuously from last 2-3 days.
- Fresh crop from Punjab and fewer parts of U.P has started arriving in market. According to trade sources crop condition in Punjab is good because of favorable weather condition.
- In U.P, approximately 5-7% crop is remaining in cold storages. According to trade sources rabi sowing is almost similar to previous year but climatic condition are not at par which may affect the production but situation is expected to be cleared after mid January.
