- India will likely to walk away with the sole right to Geographical tag (GI) tag for basmati rice in the European Union (EU) after the deadline for setline the issue with Pakistan has expired. This will allow India to market fragrance rice in the EU as "basmati" rice and can prevent other countries like Pakistan from selling food grain as "Basmati".
- South Korea has decided to purchase 350,000 tons of rice harvested this year which can be stored and utilized into the market for the future purpose. Under the plan the government will purchase 240,000 tons of packaged rice along with 100,000 tons of pre-dried rice by the end of December.
- China has increased import of rice from India. China has already imported 4.76 lakh tonnes of 100 percent broken rice from India between April and July this year.
