- In Odisha, even after a month for kharif paddy procurement, in Kalahandi district the procurement is moving at low pace due to delay in issue of tokens, artificial shortage of gunny bags and concern of millers over delivery of fortified rice kernels (FRK) are some of the reasons attributed to the tardy pace of procurement.
- Due to delay in procurement, farmers in the district of Mayurbhanj and Balasore of Odisha were forced to sell their harvest in distress sale as the middleman from nearby states like Andhra Pradesh and West Bengal purchase the products at prices between Rs. 1100 to Rs 1150 much below the MSP.
