

Sugar & Gur Domestic & International Fundamentals

- Market sentiments remained in a comfortable zone with price swinging up on Saturday. However, the market is expected to fall down in medium run on back of ample stock availability and deficient demand in the country.
- The Allahabad HC had ordered millers to pay off their pending cane arrears by selling 15% of their sugar stock in local market. It is further sentenced that 30% of the proceeds will be directly accredited to the farmers while the balance 70% will be utilized through a separate bank account.
- UP govt is planning to raise its molasses reserve quota from 20% to 34% for the year 2014-15. The move is likely to negatively affect the non-captive sugar millers who in the absence of distillery units are compelled to sell their molasses under reserved category.
- Tenders are invited for procurement of 3,60,000 kgs of diamond sugar candy (special grade with c) by TIRUMALA TIRUPATI DEVASTHANAMS (TTD). Tenders are opening up on 11th Sep, 2014.
- Centre finally came out with the decision of settling the past dues worth Rs 5000 crore in conjunction by both the millers and state govt of U.P. It should be reported that a meeting was held on 14th Aug, 2014 to discuss the current issues and concerns of sugar millers and growers in U.P.
- Total around 730000 bags of gur stored in cold storages till 11th August 2014 lower compared to 906000 bags at same period last year.
- Gur prices witness artificial firmness at present and likely move down in the coming days due to good stock availability in the Maharashtra markets. It is notable that cane has diverted more towards gur production in Pune and Sangli area this year. In addition to it, market participants is expecting early arrivals of gur for the next marketing year which drive the prices southwards in the medium term.

Outlook: Sugar prices are trading up due to strong market demand outlook in the country. In addition, upcoming festive demand is also likely to increase sugar prices in the medium term as expected.
