Soy oil demand is weak at CNF markets as prices fell more at CNF compared to FOB markets compared to last

USDA reported lower soy oil end stocks in US in 2018/19 on higher biodiesel use partially set-off by higher production of soy oil. US-China trade settlement and will support soy oil prices in domestic market.

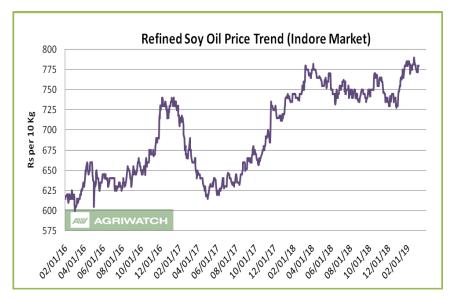

Basis fell due to improvement of weather conditions in Argentina leading to lower FOB soy oil prices. Its discount over CBOT has decreased.

Imports of soy oil rose in Jan 2018 compared to Jan 2018 and higher than Dec 2018. Imports fell 100,000 tons in Jan compared to Dec 2018 while port stocks fell 10,000 tons indicating firm demand in Jan.

Refined soy oil premium over RBD palmolein is unchanged at Rs 164 (Rs 145 last week) per 10 Kg, which is high and may cap soy oil prices in domestic markets. In USD terms, premium of CDSO CNF over CPO CNF was quoted at USD 192.5 (USD 203 last week) per ton for Mar delivery, which is high and decrease demand of CDSO at CNF markets compared to CPO CNF. International Front

Soy oil prices are expected to be supported by lower than expected soy oil stocks in US, US-China trade optimism, firm demand of US soybean from China, firm crude oil prices and weak dollar.

However, higher than expected pace of harvest of soybean, improvement of soybean crop condition in Argentina and weak competitive oils will cap gains

Soy oil end stocks in US in 2018/19 was cut by USDA on higher use of soy oil in biodiesel partially set off by higher production of soy oil. Further, soybean stocks of US was also revised lower by higher crush of soybean due to higher use. Strong soybean disappearance will support soybean complex prices.

US- China trade talks are progressing and discussions are held on daily basis. Both sides have expressed satisfaction in talks with China committing 10 MMT of soybean purchase in 2019. Major breakthrough in trade talks are expected anyday. US President extended 1 March deadline of imposition of import duty by US on Chinese goods. As soon as major breakthrough will be made premiers of both countries will meet. Trade is watching China buying intentions. Trade settlement US and China is expected to support soybean complex prices.

Soybean harvest in Brazil is progressing at much higher pace than expected. Harvest above compared to corresponding period last year and 5-year average.

Higher rate of harvest of soybean in Brazil will mean that global soybean supplies are surging much faster which will lead to additional bargaining tool for China in US-China trade settlement. China will look for higher purchase of soybean from Brazil leading to higher than expected soybean stock in US.

Soybean crop condition in Argentina has improved due to conducive weather in the country after flooding led to lower planted area. Better weather led to improvement of yield and ultimately lead to higher soybean crop in the country. This has led to lower premium of Argentina soy oil over CBOT soy oil leading to lower FOB prices.

China purchased 13 percent less soybean in January. However, January imports were 29 percent higher than Dec 2018. China has brought 10 MMT of soybean from US for deliver in first 3 months of 2019. China brought most of soybean in January from Brazil in January. Imports of soybean have been weak from US due to trade war between US and China.

Weak demand from China due to weak demand from feed sector due to lowering of protein feed quality, outbreak of swine flu, alternate source of protein and liquidation of soybean state reserves by China. However, China must import more soybeans to control soy meal prices it the country, which is reeling due to outbreak of swine flu and negative crush margins.

USDA reduced 2018/19 China's soybean import estimate to 88 MMT from 90 MMT in 2018/19 in an effort by Beijing to move away from US soybean imports. Further cut in imports by China is expected in coming months. China imported 88 MMT of soybean in 2018, according to CNGOIC, much lower than 95 MMT in 2017.

Trade dispute has led to lower sales of US soybean in MY 2018/19 leading to record soybean stocks in a year when US harvested near record soybean.

Soybean exports from Argentina is expected to rise in 2019 to 13-14 MMT, especially to China on strong demand from the country. Argentina's crushers operate at 65 percent of capacity, which leads to higher disposable soybean.

Competitive oils like BMD palm oil and DALIAN RBD palmolein is expected to trade weak due to weak demand prospects, which will underpin soy oil prices.

Dollar Index is expected to fall on realignment of US FED towards future rise in interest rates in 2018-19 will support on soy oil prices in near term.

Global crude oil prices have is expected to rise due to OPEC cut in crude oil production. Resumption of US crude imports by China will support crude oil prices.

Reduction in import duty on RBD palmolein will weaken CPO imports as duty differential between crude palm oil and RBD palmolein has fallen from 11 percent to 5 percent. Preferential treatment given to Malaysia in terms of lower RBD palmolein imports will lead to higher imports of RBD palmolein and lower imports of CPO from Indonesia.

CPO import disparity increased on fall in prices of CPO in Indian markets, which stands at Rs 3.5-4.0 per kg. High disparity in imports will decrease import demand and will not let prices fall.

Any increase in disparity is likely to decrease imports of CPO.

Traders are expected to take advantage recent fall in international prices of CPO by increasing buying.

Imports of CPO will remain weak due to higher disparity in imports. However, CPO imports will be firm compared to RBD palmolein due to higher refining margins compared to imported ready to use palmolein.

Rising premium of RBD palmolein over CPO at CNF markets will increase CPO imports.

Higher imports of CPO led to higher stocks of CPO at ports in Jan.

Import demand of RBD palmolein is expected to firm in oil year 2018-19 (Nov 2018-Oct 2019) due to reduction import duty on RBD palmolein, lower differential of RBD palmolein import duty over CPO.

Imports of RBD palmolein disparity has increased due to fall in prices of palm products in Indian markets.

At present there is disparity of Rs 0.5-1.0 per kg due to rise in premium of RBD palmolein over CPO and rise in prices of RBD palmolein in international markets.

Stocks of RBD palmolein at Indian ports have increased due to restocking at ports.

Demand of RBD palmolein was weak compared to CPO at high seas as premium RBD palmolein over CPO was at Rs 73 (Rs 79) per 10 kg compared to last week.

Margins are higher in importing CPO and selling refined oil in domestic markets, than selling ready to use RBD palmolein in domestic markets.

Higher refining margins in domestic refined palmolein compared to imported ready to use palmolein will increase imports of CPO compared to RBD palmolein.

Increasing use of biodiesel in Indonesia will reduce palm oil stocks in the country. The country has mandated 20 percent bio content in any type of gasoline use in the country and is working to increase usage to 39 percent in 2019-20.

Malaysia has unveiled plans to double biodiesel production in the country in an effort to clear stocks of palm oil in the country.

RBD Palmolein Malaysia premium has decreased over Indonesia CPO due to weak demand. Export demand will rise due to falling premium of Malaysian palmolein.
