

Dr. R.L. Pitale

Dr. Pitale holds a Ph.D. Economics from Nagpur University in 1990, He did his M.Sc. National Development and Project Planning from the Bradford University in U.K. in 1983-84. Earlier he has done his M.A. Economics from Nagpur University in 1961. He was a member of the Indian Economic Service (IES, Govt of India).

He has won Gold and Silver Medals for obtaining highest number of marks in Economics in B.A. Exam. 1959 and also King Edward Memorial Fellowship in 1959-60, Maharashtra Govt. Fellowship in 1960-61, Colombo Plan Fellowship in 1983-84 and Overseas Fellow of EDI, World Bank, in 1978

He was Adviser, Commission for Agri, Costs and Prices, Ministry of Agri, and Coop. He has worked with the BIFR, Ministry of Planning and Programme Implementation, Ministry of Finance Kingdom of Tonga, Wage Board for Sugar Industry, Industrial Development Bank of India and National Academy of Administration, Mussorie